ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC

JUNIOR DEPARTMENT.

The JUNIOR Department of the Academy was instituted at Michaelmas, 1915, with the object of providing sound and suitable instruction for pupils who are too young to be admitted as ordinary students, and whose time is chiefly occupied with their general education.

Intending pupils must be under fourteen years of age (sixteen in the case of Female Vocalists), and care will be taken to place them under Teachers who have special experience in the teaching of young children.

As it is desirable to interfere as little as possible with a pupil's general education, every effort will be made to arrange lessons and classes to meet individual requirements.

The Prospectus, giving full particulars of the Course of Study, Fees, and Regulations, can be obtained on application.

J. A. CREIGHTON,
Secretary.

P. QUARRY,
Acting-Secretary.

July 19th, 1918.
